

Hello,

Thank you for your interest in getting comments from your customers. At the moment the major comment I have is regarding the fee that one has to pay to "Modify the DNS". This should be a basic service included in the annual fee.

In order to make sure registered address are updated, have correct and updated name servers this service should be for free. This fee might also make customer to prefer .com instead of .hk

Regards,

Adler